

The June 20, 2015 meeting of the MCGA was called to order by president Glenda Damm at 10 a.m., with 14 members present, including new members; Shelley Welch and Lynda Nolan and one guest Lois Owen's husband Bill.

Glenda announced after some pleading and cajoling, we now have a cabinet to leave such items ; as table clothes, etc. at the building. She also had extra keys made of doors and cabinets, for the times she will not be there to open up.

Carole Sheftic went over the workshops for the balance of the year, since some changes have been made.

July: snake gourd- Ella Curtis Please let her know if you need a gourd and bring tools to clean gourds.

August: Sandy Hinrichs; luminaires, any small gourd will do;

Sept; Lanie Cantwell; bring work to finish up, possibly the three small gourds each member is suppose to do for a fund raiser at the gourd show;

Oct. work on birdhouses for the gourd show in Nov.;

Nov. 13,14 & 15 the gourd show at Markets of Marion;

Nov. 21 follow-up meeting and Special guest speakers: Topic "What judges are looking for during shows;

Dec. No meeting;

Jan.- Happy New Year luncheon.

Carole also discussed this year's show telling members that Carrie Lynn has agreed to give three wood burning classes that weekend- a six hour class Friday and Saturday and a- four hour class on Sunday. The cost per class will be $40 - $50. There will be member instructed classes for those not interested in wood burning.

.She is going to set up a registration page for these classes on the web site.

Meeting was adjourned at 10:40am followed by the butterfly gourd with instructor Lois Owens.

Respectively submitted

Lou White